MULTICULTURAL CHURCH

PLAZA DE LA IGLESIA
EVERY NIGHT
FROM 22:00 H

The special animated illuminations of the Church of San Antonio de Padua

Every night at 10.00 pm, the church's facade metamorphoses successively into a synagogue, a mosque then back to a church and reflects different iconic religious shapes, figures and written messages in several languages.

You can enjoy this incredible visual artshow in an incomparable setting while strolling the town's old streets, savouring delicious snacks along the Tapas Route.

MULUK GNAWA & VICTORIA IVANOVA

BARRIBARTO & CALLE REAL
EVERY DAY

Every night, Muluk Gnawa performs through the streets of the Barribarto district from 8:00 pm to midnight, playing their original music, a blend of African roots and Shaabi, Jazz, Reagae and Caribbean rythms.

At the same time, Victoria Ivanova will surprise you with her wonderings through the streets of Frigiliana. Her fascinating belly dancing wiggles will leave you speechless!

LA CABALGADA DE FRIGILIANA

PATIO OF THE TOWN HALL (CASA DEL APERO)
SUNDAY 28TH AT 9:00 PM.

After midnight, July 23th 1548, the Moriscos of Frigiliana, with all their belongings, headed for the beach of Burriana in Nerja, in order to abandon their village. They were to embark for a trip that would allow them to gain their long-awaited freedom in North Africa unaware of the terrible and sad destiny that was awaiting them.

La Cabalgada de Frigiliana is a real and fascinating episode in the history of our village and their inhabitants. The town hall patio will be the scene of this theatrical performance where the facts that took place in that historical event are related by different characters.

FILMS

Suffering child abuse marks you, conditions you and limits you. But what's next?

“7:11 Cuarzo” is a documentary short film that delves into the consequences and shows us various ways of experiencing grief after suffering it: the aftermath, the path after breaking the silence and destroying the stigma. He talks about the treatment and care of wounds with testimonials from those who have suffered abuse and aggression. Learning to live again when the most precious thing, innocence, is taken from you.

Debate with Daniel Entrambasaguas (Film Director)

FRIDAY 25th - 18:00 h.

Title: 7:11 Cuarzo
Year: 2023
Director: Daniel Ortiz Entrambasaguas
Country: Spain
Duration: 23 minutes

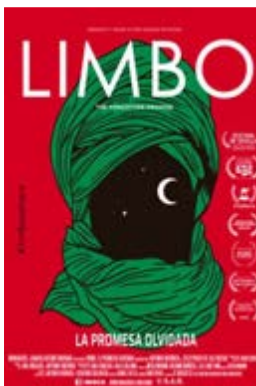

The countdown of three characters with three intertwined stories that try to stay afloat and survive 24 key hours that can change the course of their lives forever.

The film explores the effect that a situation of economic stress has on personal relationships and how the effect and solidarity can be an engine to get ahead. An exciting journey against time on the fringes of a big city.

SATURDAY 26th - 18:00 h.

Title: En los Márgenes
Year: 2022
Director: Juan Diego Botto
Country: Spain
Duration: 105 minutes

History of oppression and resistance, with the aim of showing the world the beauty of the Saharawi people, their political elegance, their human integrity and their example of peaceful resistance.

It can be said that Western Sahara is a limbo: it is the largest territory on the planet that has yet to be decolonized. In this film we will learn about the history of oppression and resistance of the Saharawi people, but also its beauty and wealth from visual poetry, the sounds that evoke the Sahara and the generational story of the protagonists of this story.

SUNDAY 27th - 18:00 h.

Title: Limbo, la promesa olvidada
Year: 2020
Director: Antonio Rodrigo
Country: Spain
Duration: 50 minutes
